

Santa Claus Last Call

For the last time this year we invite the people of Marshall to come to Jones' and enjoy doing their Christmas shopping in Kansas City's largest and best store. There you will find abundant opportunity for a bargain and money saving.

FREE Trip to Kansas City

Don't deny yourself the pleasure and profit of shopping at Jones', Kansas City, because you live at a distance. Buy a round-trip ticket to Kansas City and choose whatever you want to buy from the most complete showing of merchandise in the West. Make it a jolly Jones' Day. We'll pay your railroad fare, round trip to Kansas City, at the rate of a mile for every dollar you spend here. Thus, a 25 dollar purchase means free round-trip railroad fare for 25 miles. To make you doubly glad you came, we'll present you with

FREE Profit-Sharing Coupons

A Free Surety Coupon for every ten cent purchase, $2.50 in GOODS FREE for a book full. That's our expression of appreciation for your continued patronage. They mean sharing our profits to the extent of about 5 per cent.

Come to Jones', Kansas City, for all your purchases.

THE JONES STORE CO.
A STORE FOR EVERYBODY.
KANSAS CITY'S PROFIT-SHARING STORE

County News

ARROW ROCK

O. J. Watts of Napton was transacting business here Tuesday.

Pink McArt and wife of Cooper were town visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. John Reynolds and Miss Julia Wiley of Cooper were callers Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Parlice Bingham.

Miss Ruth Piper passed through town Tuesday enroute to Howard to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Waite for a few days.

Geo. R. Crockett has sold his stock of goods, recently purchased of G. P. Martin to Cole Bros., who are conducting a reduction sale to close out the stock.

Dr. Hickerson had a new roof put on his building joining the Old Tavern on the west, the lower floor of which is used as a rest room of the Woman's National Old Trails Road Association.

Frank Townsend, who has been quite sick for some time is now able to be out some and walked down town Friday for the first time.

The ladies of the Cemetery Association held their bazaar and chicken dinner at the hall Thursday. There was quite a large crowd out. The proceeds of the sales were $142.

J. F. Spence, wife and Beth Dicks motored to Booneville Thursday.

Will Moehle and family of Booneville were visitors Thursday at the home of Early Thomas.

J. S. Hogge and wife were transacting business in Kansas City the last of the week.

Arthur Dickson passed through town Saturday taking his family and household goods to Blackwater, where he will reside as he has charge of the light plant there.

The Old Fellows had their annual oyster supper at the hall Saturday night. They and their families partook of the feast.

June Martin and family moved Saturday to Dr. Bradshaw's farm they recently purchased north of town.

Little Rachel Shemwell is quite sick this week with sore throat.

Robert Marshall and family of St. Louis are visiting relatives here this week.

Croup and Cough Remedy

Croup is a terrible disease. It attacks children so suddenly they are very apt to choke unless given the proper remedy at once. There is nothing better in the world than Dr. King's New Discovery. Lewis Chamberlain, of Manchester, Ohio, writes about his children: "Sometimes in severe attacks we were afraid they would die, but since we've proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup, coughs and colds. So can you. 50c and $1.00. A bottle should be in every home. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklin & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. Adv.

BLUE LICK

Rev. Powers filed his regular appointment Sunday, both morning and evening.

Ye local scribe spent the past two weeks in Nelson and Pettie Springs.

Mr. George Barron and family dined with Jim Taylor and family Sunday.

Dave Dennis, wife and children spent Sunday with the former's parents, L. S. Dennis and wife.

Mrs. J. H. Dennis and children spent Sunday with G. B. Linsley and wife.

W. A. Hill, wife and children spent Sunday with the latter's parents, L. C. Dennis and wife.

Mrs. Richard Travis and son, William of Blackwater were in Marshall Saturday doing their Christmas shopping and visiting friends.

MT. LEONARD

Mr. Hooper of Miami was a visitor a few days of last week at the home of T. S. Smith.

Charley Baker of Napton, State Game Warden, and Lester Woodsmall, constable of Marshall, were on our streets the latter part of the week.

A. V. Spellman of Bolivar, Mo., was a guest of friends here the latter part of the week.

Mrs. R. P. Brightwell spent a few days of last week a guest of her parents in Slater.

Mrs. James Morris of Mounds, Okla., visited Friday with E. P. Grimes and family and left for her home on the early morning train Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Gray of Omaha, Neb., arrived Wednesday and are guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Gray.

Louie Siebert met with a rather serious accident Saturday. Mr. Siebert was leaving town when his team became frightened and ran away throwing him out of the wagon. The wheels of the wagon went over his body which resulted in a broken rib and bruises. He was attended by Dr. Tuttle of Mt. Leonard.

C. L. Grimes, wife and daughter, Velma Lee, were Sunday guests of T. S. Smith and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gorrell are rejoicing over the arrival of a boy in their home Dec. 12.

NEW HOME

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Forbes visited Mrs. Anna and Mr. Walter Larue Sunday.

J. J. Murray of Melrose, New Mexico, arrived here Saturday to visit relatives and friends for a while.

Messrs. Walter and Troy Larue were in Marshall Monday for the day only.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Harris and son, Orville, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Stolberg and children spent Saturday night and Sunday with D. M. Harris and family.

There will be a New Home program given at the New Home church on December 23, 1915. Everybody are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Harris and daughter, Miss Minnie, and son, J. S. Harris, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Forbes Monday.

Albert Katlander visited his sister, Mrs. Lula Menegall of Marshall Friday night and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knott and daughter Miss Bessie were shopping in Sweet Springs Friday.

SALINE POINT

Corn gathering seems to be the order of the day in this locality. Mitchell Dilley of the Fish Creek neighborhood visited relatives here a few days the first of the week.

D. H. Ryan has been doing some carpenter and plaster work for J. A. Lavenport.

The corn sales seem to be slow around here.

McKinley Irvin of Strahan, Iowa, arrived here Monday evening for a visit with his sisters, during the holidays.

Johnnie Keyton of Slater visited relatives here a few days this week.

J. C. Gibbons sold to W. M. Ryan a bunch of hogs for $6.95.

Mrs. Will Ryan, Misses Nellie Miller, Mary Dilley and James Copeland visited at Steve Fragers in Malta Bend last Sunday.

Birth of Baby Girl Announced

Mrs. C. B. Bacon received Tuesday morning a post card announcing the birth of a daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Hatchkiss at their home in McAllister, Okla., Sunday, December 7.

The mother will be remembered as Miss Emma Adams formerly of this city and a graduate of the University of Kansas.

Christmas Tree at Shiloh.

The Methodist ladies of the Shiloh church are busy getting ready for a Christmas tree for their Sunday school on Wednesday, December 24. The committee in charge met today here to make arrangements and do some buying for the tree. The ladies composing the committee are: Mrs. G. M. Young, Mrs. B. F. Lawless and Miss Anna Nave.

Slater is reaching out for a white Christmas. A committee was appointed this week at a meeting of the commercial club, executive committee, to raise funds for a 1700 white way. It is said that everybody wants it, and that means that they will have it.

Kelley-Vawter Christmas windows are as usual beautiful, giving evidence that this fine jewelry emporium is one of the places in the city to find acceptable gifts. Here is where you can get the gift of all gifts—an elegant victrola and talking machine.

Mrs. Hugh and Mrs. Stonewall White of Whites Island were in Marshall Friday afternoon shopping.

Here are Gifts That Will Appeal To Every Woman!

THE very best sort of present to make is one that will make its recipient exclaim: "Why I have always wanted that, but I didn't know it until you gave it to me!" You will find scores of just such presents at White's—gifts for women and children that will be received with joy and lasting appreciation.

A stroll through the aisles of this Christmas store will offer many helpful suggestions. But come early before someone else buys the things that YOU want!

Dainty Undermuslins for Xmas Gifts

These sheer, attractive undermuslins will make attractive gifts that are sure to meet with the appreciation of every woman to whom they are given.

In addition to the undermuslins here are complete lines of Kayser's silk underwear, such as union suits, knickerbockers and vests, which will also make splendid gifts. Despite the uniformly high quality of these goods, their prices are moderate.

Handkerchiefs for Gifts are Always in Good Taste

A big assortment of handkerchiefs for women and children awaits your selection at White's. The prices are low and the quality is high. You are always safe in giving handkerchiefs to almost anyone. Very few people ever get too many of these necessities. Wouldn't you like to receive some on Christmas Day?

We have simple, serviceable handkerchiefs for as little as 5c each and we have others that sell for $1.50. All are the best values possible at their prices.

Dainty Sacques & Booties for Infants

A good assortment of sacques and booties for infants in many pretty styles. They are well-made of good materials, yet are reasonably priced.

Jewelry—The Gift Popular

Jewelry for every woman—gifts that will cause their donors to be long remembered. It need not cost much—if you buy at White's!

Dainty Neckwear

An unusually interesting display is this gathering of neckwear. Here are scores of dainty and inexpensive articles that will go a long way toward personal attractiveness.

The Newest Hand Bags

Something that adds to a woman's convenience and comfort and at the same time enhances her appearance. Therefore, an excellent gift.

We have a big stock of leather bags, purses, leaved bags, mesh bags, etc., at a wide range of attractive prices.

Give Sensible Presents!

A practical gift that means real service to the recipient is always more welcome than the trifle and gew-gaws that are soon forgotten about.

You can buy sensible, practical, useful gifts at White's—gifts that are certain of appreciation. And please remember that this firm's name on a gift package has a real meaning to the recipient!

Marshall, Mo.
The Store That Sells Wooltex

Your Hosiery Gifts Should Be Bought at White's!

Then you'll know that they're the best hose you could buy for the money—and their recipients will be entirely satisfied with them. White's name on any gift package means much to Saline County women!

We have Kayser, Phoenix and Gordon hosiery, in all styles at all prices. Clearance of all women's suits.

We still have a few women's suits left, and these we are clearing out at cost or less.

We do not want to carry these suits in stock any longer so we have marked them at strikingly low prices. Here is your opportunity to buy a stylish and becoming suit for a small part of its original price. These suits will make acceptable gifts.

Every Little Girl Should See These Dolls

Dolls of every sort and kind and at almost any price you want to pay! Better select one now, before someone else gets the dolly you want for YOUR little girl!

BLACKBURN

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cox went to Kansas City Thursday to attend the funeral of the latter's mother, Mrs. McMahon.

Miss Marie Cooper has gone to Kansas City to spend the winter with relatives.

Less Dyer of Malta Bend spent Thursday and Friday with Price Loper.

Mrs. J. S. Hitt returned Tuesday from a visit to Jesse Hitt and family at Corder.

Mrs. Wm. Bronning went to Higginville Thursday, to spend a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hickmann who is still confined to her bed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Neale, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hitt and family returned from a visit to Kansas City last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones attended a show at Corder Friday evening.

Mrs. J. L. Jones was the guest of Mrs. L. A. Blackburn Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Carroll Floyd was a shopper at Marshall Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Hackney have returned home from a visit of several months with the former's parents at Little Rock, Ark.

Ed. Haemann and sister, Miss here Thursday evening.

Florence of Alma attended services.

John Peak was a Marshall visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Alex King spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Guenther at Alma.

Mrs. August Finkelde, Fred Finkelde, Wm. Washburn, Tom Davis and Miss Flossie Pauling were passengers to Marshall Tuesday.

David Byers of Slater is the guest of Dave Entekin this week.

Tom Cox of Kansas City visited his brother, Bob and family several days last week.

Had an operation.

R. T. Poffe of the county seat of Marshall submitted to an operation Monday at the St. Joseph hospital and word from her today is that she is getting along nicely. She is Dr. Lester Hall's patient and went to Kansas City last Saturday.

J. VANDYKE

J. R. VANDYKE

VANDYKE & CO.

Farm Loans

Lowest Rates

Easiest Terms

Office: Between New York Racket and Bank of Saline
MARSHALL, MISSOURI

HURRY,—YOUR COMPETITOR MAY GET THE ORDER!

Our rates for out-of-town service make it expensive for you to write letters.

The quickness of Bell Long Distance service gets you your party in a few minutes, so you can TALK and get immediate decision and answer.

Business, now-a-days, cannot wait for Uncle Sam. Use the Bell.

Missouri & Kansas Telephone Company.
IT'S EVERYWHERE.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

The following Real Estate sales were made by our live Real Estate Agent, L. E. Benedict, during November month:

For Geo. J. Christman, 160 acres.....$27,500
For J. Mort Piper, 218 acres.....32,250
For Willis A. Campbell, 160 acres.....21,000
For Chas. O. Stansbery, 80 acres.....4,770

And during last few days of Oct. he sold
For M. F. Swinney to J. C. Lamkin, residence known as DeGarmo place.....$4,500
For H. Clay Corder to P. J. Green, residence on West Arrow St.....2,750

Nearly a total of $100,000.00